

1. Formation of Contract

This exhibition contract shall be formed when the organizer, JPCA accepts the application from an exhibitor. JPCA reserves the right to refuse to accept the application. In such cases, JPCA shall not state the reasons for the refusal.

2. Basic Condition for Accepting Exhibit Application

The exhibitors shall agree to the exhibition purposes of JPCA Show 2020, 2020 Microelectronics Show, JISSO PROTEC 2020, Total Organic Devices Expo 2020, WIRE Japan Show 2020 and Smart Sensing 2020 and JEP/TEP Show 2020, E-Textile 2020 are not allowed, in principle, to exhibit products and technologies which are not clearly shown in major target products and technologies for each exhibition described in the exhibition guide.

3. How to Pay Exhibition Fees

The exhibitors shall pay exhibition fees and any optional fees incidental thereto based on the invoice issued by Secretariat Office by the deadline noted on the invoice. The payment from the exhibitors shall be made to the designated bank account described in the invoice in Japanese yen. We don't take promissory notes, checks, etc. The bank transfer fees shall be paid by the exhibitors.

4. Exhibition Booth Fees Include as Follows:

- Booth lease fees ●Partition walls (panels) [in case that there are adjoining booths]
- Other services mandated by the secretariat for exhibitors ●Other expenses concerning visitor services ●Safety administrative expenses, expenses of necessary personnel and guard

5. Installation and Removal of Exhibits

The exhibitors must carry in and out decorative articles and exhibits in the booths according to the schedule decided by JPCA.
If an exhibitor needs to carry in or out or move exhibits during the exhibition period, it shall work on these tasks after the approval of JPCA.

6. Use of Exhibition Area

All the advertising and business activities shall be limited in the exhibition booths. Each exhibitor shall have a responsibility to reduce crowdedness because of advertising activities in passages near each booth. Anything such as decorative articles shall not exceed the scope of allocated space.
If JPCA finds any problem with the sound, method of control, materials, or other aspects of decorative articles or exhibits, it shall have the right to prohibit or remove all the acts which go against the purposes of the exhibition.
In the event of exercising the right of the above restriction or removal, JPCA shall not be held liable to reimburse the exhibitors in any way or bear the associated costs.

7. Management of Exhibits and Indemnity

JPCA shall take the greatest possible care to the management and maintenance of the exhibition site, however, it shall not be liable for any loss or damage of exhibits caused by any other reasons.

8. Warranty Clause

The exhibitors shall guarantee JPCA that the exhibits in the exhibition or the related printed materials and other medium concerning the exhibits will not infringe trademark rights, design rights, patent rights, utility model rights or any other intellectual property rights of any third party.

9. Obligation of Exhibitors

(1) In cases where there is a claim that the acts related to the exhibitors' participation in the exhibition infringe trademark rights, design rights, patent rights, utility model rights or any other intellectual property rights of any third party, the exhibitors shall have the obligation to JPCA to promptly settle such dispute with the third party at their own responsibility and not to hinder the normal and smooth progress of the exhibition
(2) In cases where a claim regarding the infringement of intellectual property rights occurs against an exhibitor who is a member of the group concerned from the third party, a responsible person for the group exhibitions shall have the same obligation set forth in the preceding paragraph.

10. Determination of Booth Location

The booth locations will be announced at the Exhibitors' Briefing.
As a rule, booth location will be determined based on the zoning layout, taking into account the number of booths assigned to the same application for the same exhibition, booth type, technological themes of functional exhibitions, etc. and will be decided by the Organizer.

11. Cancellations of Exhibition Booths and Reduction of Number of Booths

If an exhibit is cancelled or the number of exhibition booths is reduced to suit the exhibitor's circumstances, cancellation charges (full or partial fees) shall apply as below.

Date of receipt of written notice of cancellation (by post, fax, or email)	Cancellation charges
By Saturday, February 1, 2020	50% of booth fees
From Sunday, February 2, 2020 onward	100% of booth fees

12. Prohibition of Subletting, Selling, Transferring, or Exchanging of Exhibition Space

The exhibitors shall not sublet, sell, transfer, or exchange exhibition space, either in whole or in part, to any third party, including other exhibitors.

13. Notices for Exhibitors of Foreign Products and Foreign Exhibitors

(1) Bond procedure for exhibits from foreign countries
JPCA shall not apply for bonded exhibition site status. When the exhibitors would like to treat exhibits from overseas as bonded products, the exhibitors shall complete the bond procedure.
(2) Obtaining a visa
When foreign exhibitors need to obtain visas, the exhibitors shall assume responsibility for preparing the necessary documents including Letter of Guarantee and Letter of Reason for Invitation and complete the procedure.
JPCA shall not issue Letter of Guarantee and Letter of Reason for Invitation to the exhibitors. JPCA shall not be held liable to compensate for losses and/or damages arising from the inability for the exhibitor to participate in the exhibition, in the event the exhibitor are not successful in acquiring a visa.

14. Compensation for Damages

(1) The exhibitors shall be responsible for all damages to the venue facilities, buildings, or injuries to their personnel owing to negligence on the part of themselves or their agents, or for other reasons.
(2) The exhibitors shall agree to be obliged to make compensation to JPCA for legal costs, liabilities (including an attorney's fee), necessary expenses, and compensation for damages, caused by an action arising out of or as a result of claims in the following cases:
(a) In cases where a lawsuit is filed against JPCA, based on a claim that the acts related to the exhibitors' participation in the exhibition infringe trademark rights, design rights, patent rights, utility model rights or any other intellectual property rights of any third party (including the cases where JPCA as well as the exhibitors are regarded as defendants), or
(b) In cases where JPCA is liable for compensation for damages in a judgement, a court, or an out-of-court settlement due to such a lawsuit in (a), (JPCA shall not be subject to the intension of the exhibitors in terms of a settlement)
(3) JPCA shall bear no responsibility for typographical errors and omissions in sales promotion materials such as announcement advertising and a guide book for the exhibition.

15. Cancellation of Exhibit

(1) If JPCA has significantly difficult in holding the exhibition because of an event of force majeure, such as an earthquake, typhoon, fire, infectious disease, terrorist act or instruction or order from the third party, JPCA may cancel the exhibition or shorten the duration of the exhibition or the hours that the exhibition is open to the public, either before or during the exhibition. In such event, after JPCA deems such action necessary, the exhibitors shall be notified and the information shall be promptly published on the official website. JPCA shall not assume any responsibility for damages suffered by the exhibitors due to this decision or action.
(2) If force majeure which has occurred during the exhibition forces the duration of the exhibition or the hours that the exhibition is open to the public to be shortened, JPCA shall not reimburse exhibition booth fees.
(3) JPCA shall not compensate for the expenses required by the exhibitors if the exhibition is cancelled or the duration of the exhibition or the hours that the exhibition is open to the public is shortened due to force majeure.

16. Compliance with Provisions

The exhibitors shall comply with the set of provisions stipulated by JPCA.

17. Changes and Additions of Regulations

If any question arises regarding any matter not stipulated in the regulations or any provision hereof, the exhibitors shall abide by the decisions of JPCA.
JPCA shall reserve the right to make revision and/or supplement to this regulations with the notification to the exhibitors in each fiscal year in advance.

18. Governing Law

The contract shall be governed by the laws of Japan.

19. Agreement Jurisdictional Court

It is agreed that the court of jurisdiction for all disputes arising with regards to the contract shall be the Tokyo District Court.
